OFFICE OF
SECRETARY OF STATE
PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

The past year has witnessed an epoch in the history of our state which we had thought impossible. It did not seem to the most practical of us that the spectre of human suffering could ever walk in our midst. With the challenge of reality before us, the pioneer spirit of our fathers did not permit us to bow to disaster, and in the face of calamity we have rallied our efforts to the end that suffering will not exist this winter. This has been accomplished through the assistance of our federal government and through individual effort and determination.

Out of the discouragements and the heartaches, we have regained something of immeasurable good, something which we had lost sight of temporarily. We have learned the value of fundamentals. We have learned that economic security can only be obtained by living within our means. We have learned that the attributes of honesty, integrity, and faith in our fellowmen are more essential than things material. Most important of all, we have remembered that "we are our brother's keeper," and that instead of being an idealistic conception, the beautiful lines of Scripture, "Even so as ye have done unto the least of these thy brethren, so also have ye done unto me," are a fundamental rule of life.

I, THEREFORE, TOM BERRY, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30

As a day of PUBLIC THANKS AND PRAISE TO OUR HEAVENLY FATHER for the priceless gifts which He in His infinite wisdom has brought to us in the only way in which we could have understood.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 8th day of November, 1933.

Tom Berry
Governor.
